THE FLIGHT

- On Sunday morning we left to get to the airport where our journey begun
- It took us one and a half hour to finally land in Italy

- We got to see so many magnificent buildings and Statue's

WEDNESDAY A.

- This was my favorite trip out of all, we went on the "Isola dei Pescatori" a.k.a.: the fisherman island
- It was a beautiful little village, the people there were really nice but the view was even nicer
- If i had the chance I would go there again

WEDNESDAY B.

- We actually went on a second island on the same day!
- It had a really really pretty palec that was even prettier on the inside

THURSDAY

- On this day we went for a boat trip!
- Well to be honest it rained a little that day but it was still a nice experience

- This day we actually went to Switzerland!
- Although I couldn't buy anything, it was quite nice, BUT it rained all day

SATURDAY- THE LAST DAY

- On the last day we visited Milan one last time
- It was as beautiful and enjoyable as the first time
- And in the evening we went to the airport to get back home after this exiting week
